CELEBRATING OUR PARISH

On the 28th July when we celebrate our Feast as St Joseph's and St Edward's Parish we want to recognise our origins, our rich diversity as well as our unity. I have the following flags listed:

England, Isle of Man, Nigeria, Ireland, Poland, Iran, India, Angola, Ghana, Liberia, Uganda, Scotland, Wales, Great Britain, Italy, Mozambique, France, Portugal. If your flag isn't there let me know as soon as possible.

Can you help ? We need donations for dvds, books, unwanted gifts, bottles, cans etc. Anything we can use for the Tombola, the White Elephant Stall etc. Virtually anything except clothes.

Please bring donations to the house or the church anytime.

Will you bring food to share on the day?

Can you tell us what you can bring? Fill in the sign up sheets or see Fr Rob or Chris Hill. Thanks

There is a day for Music Ministry being held in the deanery, at St Kentigern's Social Club, Fallowfield on Friday 28th June at 7.30pm.

Anyone involved in music ministry, choirs musicians etc are welcome

Also welcome are those who would like to volunteer to be involved.

Do you have a traditional or national costume ? Are you willing to wear it on 28th July to celebrate our feast ? I have both African and Indian shirts which should I wear ? I can't wear British gear as I don't have pinstripes ! Fr Rob

St Joseph's School

Congrats to S Joseph's school who had an ofsted MOT during the first half of the term.

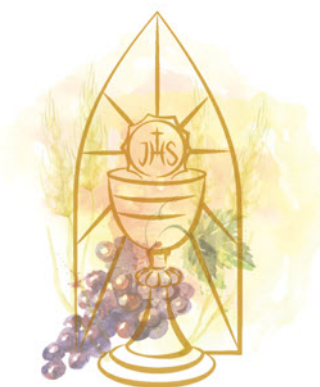

This is never an easy experience. In all honesty its nerve racking. However as you would expect under the leadership of Mrs Eccles and her Senior team and the Governors the school retained its status as a good school.

I am sure many of you will say it should be outstanding. My experience is that it is. Ofsted, however rarely if ever now give outstanding. So we can be proud of our Good School.

Well done all.

Congrats to our First Holy Communion children.

Copes of the OFSTED report are in the porch.
